Spring into Learning: WonderWorks Branson Unveils Exciting Educational Programs for All Ages!

*Don't Miss Field Trips, College Days, and Special Events at WonderWorks This Spring
– Where Fun Meets Education*

BRANSON, Mo. – (March 18, 2025) – Spring is a great time to get active, learn something new, and have fun. While WonderWorks Branson offers fun educational opportunities all year, some extra exciting things are lined up for this spring. They are expanding their efforts, focusing on education with special events, ticket deals, and group offerings that people will not want to miss. The wonders of learning are taking center stage all season long.

“We love spreading our love for learning here at WonderWorks, so naturally, spring is our favorite time of year with plenty of field trips and educational events!” said Tim Church, education sales manager at WonderWorks Branson. “We’ll be continuing our partnerships with local libraries, welcoming local students of all ages, and much more. WonderWorks is bursting with ‘edu-tainment!’”

The fun activities and offers WonderWorks is serving up this spring include:

- Field Trips – Students will have a blast as they engage in hands-on experiences related to the topics they are learning about in the classroom. WonderWorks welcomes numerous school groups throughout the spring, as field trip season swings into full gear. It's not too late for teachers to plan a field trip, which can be done online.
- College Days – College students across the country are wrapping up their semester and are ready to lose the study stress. WonderWorks Branson will be offering College Days in March 2025 to recognize all their hard work. All college students can get All Access tickets for only $15, plus tax, allowing them to explore the exhibits and have fun. Student ID will need to be presented at the door to purchase.
- National Library Week – Those who register for a first-time library card at a local participating library branch between April 6-12, 2025, will receive a free WonderWorks Branson admission ticket in celebration of National Library Week. The library will provide the tickets, which must be presented along with the library card when visiting WonderWorks. This is a great opportunity to support your local library and dive into the wonders of reading!
- Appreciation Days for Locals and Teachers – Branson locals, teachers, and school support staff should watch for information and registration information to be released soon for several upcoming specials that they will not want to miss out on. Local Appreciation Days will return in April 2025, and Teacher Appreciation Days return in May 2025.

Those looking for a great spring break destination should not miss stopping by WonderWorks Branson, which offers the perfect spot for indoor fun this spring between these specials and three floors of attractions. Guests can create giant bubbles, hop into a roller coaster simulator, and check out one of the many other hands-on exhibits. Plus, don't miss The Branson Experience exhibit, which is a unique opportunity to learn about the area's eco-system, Route 66, and just what it is that makes Branson and the Ozarks such a special part of the country and why millions of people visit the area each year.

"There's no better place to spend a Missouri spring break than Branson," said Brenda Dent, general manager at WonderWorks Branson. "Take in the beautiful Ozark Mountains and embark on an upside-down adventure inside WonderWorks! We have everything you need to keep the learning going while having a blast."

The over 100 interactive exhibits at WonderWorks Branson have been designed to give guests a way to learn more about different STEAM topics in a fun and memorable way. They also offer STEM and STEAM activities and events throughout the year. They provide options for team-builders, field trips, corporate events, group rates, family reunions, end-of-year banquets, and more. There are numerous event packages and group rates available with advanced reservations. WonderWorks Branson offers over 48,000 square feet of family-friendly, engaging activities.
