Turning 5 and Still Upside-Down! WonderWorks Branson Throws a Birthday Bash in Honor of 5 Years of Wonder.

Celebrate WonderWorks' Golden Birthday with Summer Fun for the Whole Family

BRANSON, Mo. – (June 9, 2025) – Do you remember watching the amazing upside-down house being built on West 76 Country Boulevard? It's crazy to think that was over five years ago, but WonderWorks Branson celebrated its 5th anniversary on June 5, 2025. In honor of this milestone event, guests who visited on the anniversary got to celebrate with the attraction's team and were treated with some surprise deals to make their visit even more memorable. To keep the party going through the summer, Branson locals and vacationers alike are encouraged to share their favorite memories from their WonderWorks visits on social media to join in the fun. With the anniversary passed, the popular family attraction is now entering their 6th year of providing family fun for everyone. They are excited to invite guests old and new to explore, be engaged, and keep the learning going all summer long with hands-on activities and challenges for thinkers of all ages.

"Time really does fly when you're having fun! It's hard to believe it's been five years since opening day. The Branson community is the best, and we loved celebrating this milestone with them," said Brenda Dent, general manager at WonderWorks Branson.

WonderWorks Branson opened its doors for the first time on June 5, 2020, and is now excited to celebrate its golden birthday five years later. The opening of WonderWorks happened in the midst of the COVID-19 pandemic, and still, their team worked hard and came together to get the doors open and keep things safe for visitors who were eager to share in the exciting day.

WonderWorks Branson is thankful to all local and tourist guests who have visited the upside-down house throughout the years. They are proud to be a part of the Branson community and are honored to call the "Live Entertainment Capital of the World" their home. Over the last five years, they have provided countless hours of fun, exploration, and hands-on learning to individuals, families, school field trips, homeschoolers, military groups, and more. They have also upheld their mission to give back to the community through countless fundraisers, service appreciation deals, and giveaways. WonderWorks aims to continue to provide everyone with a fun place to go that keeps the learning fresh, entertaining, and memorable.

"Every season is fun at WonderWorks, but this summer will be fantastic! Take a break from the sun and come learn something new while having a blast," said Tim Church, sales manager at WonderWorks Branson.

As schools start to let out for the summer, WonderWorks Branson is excited to kick off their 6th season of summer fun. The indoor amusement park for the mind offers guests of all ages the perfect destination for unique fun and learning. Kids will get hands-on, educational experiences related to topics they have been learning in school. Plus, they can engage in physical challenges, play laser tag, and check out the local youth art gallery, featuring masterpieces created by their peers. Guests should follow the WonderWorks Branson social media pages or join their email list to keep up with special events and the best ways to save on admission tickets. There's never been a better time to plan a visit to the upside-down house!

The over 100 interactive exhibits at WonderWorks Branson have been designed to give guests a way to learn more about STEM topics in a fun and memorable way. They also offer STEM and STEAM activities and events throughout the year. They provide team-building activities, field trips, corporate events, group rates, family reunions, and more. There are numerous events and group packages available with advanced reservations. WonderWorks Branson offers over 48,000 square feet of family-friendly, engaging activities.
