WonderWorks Myrtle Beach Celebrates Spring with a Focus on Education and Entertainment

Discover Unforgettable Field Trips, Exclusive Discounts, and Teacher Appreciation Days This Spring

MYRTLE BEACH, S.C. - (March 17, 2025) – WonderWorks Myrtle Beach is known for providing fun and educational opportunities year-round. This spring, they are taking things to the next level, offering special events, ticket deals, and group offerings that locals and vacationers will not want to miss. From educational field trips to a teacher appreciation special, there's something for everyone in the coming months.

“We love field trip season here at WonderWorks because we get to share our love of learning with students from across the state!” said Kaitlin Barnes, education sales manager at WonderWorks Myrtle Beach. “It’s great to see the wonder on their faces as they walk into the upside-down house for the first time and challenge themselves at the exhibits.”

Fun activities and opportunities abound this spring at WonderWorks Myrtle Beach, including:

- Educational Field Trips – WonderWorks will be welcoming numerous school groups throughout the spring. Field trips to the upside-down laboratory give students of all ages hands-on learning opportunities that will provide them with real-life experience in topics they are learning about in the classroom. Plus, they will have a great time as they do it! It's not too late for teachers to plan their field trips online.
- College Days – From March 2025 through May 2025, college students can experience all that WonderWorks has to offer for only $20, plus tax. They will need to show their student ID at the door to purchase this exclusive ticket. This is a great way for college students to wrap up their semester on a high note and reduce some of the studying stress.
- National Library Week – WonderWorks Myrtle Beach is gearing up to give away free tickets to those who register for a first-time library card at local participating libraries from April 6-12, 2025. The library will provide a free ticket upon signing up, which must be presented along with the library card when visiting WonderWorks. Check with the Horry County Memorial Library system for participating locations.

- Teacher Appreciation Days – The WonderWorks Myrtle Beach annual Teacher Appreciation Days will return in May 2025. Teachers and school support staff in North and South Carolina should watch for the details and registration information to be announced soon. You won't want to miss this great deal for educators!

Between these special events and the countless other year-round offerings, WonderWorks Myrtle Beach is a great spring break destination, offering the perfect indoor and outdoor fun spot. The popular outdoor Soar + Explore ropes course and zipline experiences will open for the season on Saturday, March 29, 2025. This thrilling experience allows participants to soar 50 feet above the water and travel 1,000 feet between towers. The tropical-themed ropes course is 40 feet tall and spans three levels, allowing people to challenge themselves in a climb to new heights. Head inside to hop onto a roller coaster simulator and create giant bubbles the size of basketballs. There is something for everyone at WonderWorks this spring break, whether a local or vacationer.

"Myrtle Beach is a fantastic spring break destination, and WonderWorks is the cherry on your itinerary! We offer a unique day out for families and friend groups. Plus, our eye-catching building is the perfect photo spot to commemorate your trip," said Robert Stinnett, general manager at WonderWorks Myrtle Beach.

WonderWorks Myrtle Beach offers over 100 hands-on exhibits with fun and learning opportunities. Guests can play laser tag, take on the zipline, challenge themselves on the ropes courses, play arcade games, step into simulators, experience the 6D XD Motion Theater, and more. Located at 1313 Celebrity Circle, WonderWorks Myrtle Beach is open daily.
