WonderWorks Announces Price Cut for Locals

Panama City Beach attraction gives residents a second chance to save

Panama City Beach, FL (February 6, 2015) – WonderWorks is inviting Panama City Beach residents to enjoy the exciting indoor amusement park at a special low rate. Beginning February 16th and running until the 18th, guests can state the phrase “locals save” upon entrance, and enjoy all of WonderWorks’ interactive exhibits at a discounted price. The repeat deal comes in effort for WonderWorks to continue its strong relationship with hometown occupants.

“We do get a lot of tourists at WonderWorks, but the local residents are here supporting us all year and they deserve to be recognized as much as possible,” said General Manager Mike Walsingham. “This is the second discount we have offered Panama City Beach locals within three months, and we hope that it shows how grateful we are to have them!”

Admission will be lowered to $14.99 plus tax for adults ages 13 and older. Kids, ages 4 to 12, and seniors, ages 55 and older, can enter for just $9.99. The offer is valid for residents of Horry, Georgetown or Brunswick County and proof of residency is required. Whether you have been to WonderWorks before or are looking for something new in your hometown of Panama City Beach, be sure to check out this great deal!
