New Beginnings Call for Unforgettable Experiences: WonderWorks Celebrates College Decision Day with BOGO Ticket Offer

PIGEON FORGE, Tennessee (April 22, 2024) – For millions of high school seniors, deciding where to go to college is an important step in their academic career and personal lives. This May, WonderWorks Pigeon Forge is recognizing this accomplishment with buy one, get one free admission tickets during the first week of the month, May 1-8, 2024. High school seniors can get this BOGO ticket deal by bringing their college acceptance letter to the ticket counter to commemorate this next step.

“Picking a college can be stressful for many students, but that makes it all the more fun to celebrate once the decision has been made!” said Ellen Holland, sales manager at WonderWorks Pigeon Forge. “We’re excited to bring back our Decision Week BOGO deal for the second year in a row and recognize our local senior’s hard work.”

Nationally, May 1st is considered College Decision Day, the deadline for graduating high school seniors to commit to the college they plan to attend. WonderWorks Pigeon Forge wants to celebrate this educational milestone for local and visiting college-bound high school seniors by giving them a place to play. The BOGO ticket deal is available all week, May 1-8, 2024. Those taking advantage of the promotion are encouraged to wear apparel from their chosen college, showing off their school pride.

“The WonderWorks team will join the fun and sport their best college attire all week. Congratulations, seniors!” said Joe Baumgartner, general manager at WonderWorks Pigeon Forge.
